Online Bachelor of Multidisciplinary Studies

Design a degree that fits your specific educational goals and interests with UTEP’s online Bachelor of Multidisciplinary Studies. Unlike traditional degree programs that follow a predetermined curriculum, our online program gives you the flexibility and freedom to build your own course of study. You will also receive credit for most coursework completed at previous institutions and/or programs.

Connect with Your Future
The solid academic foundation provided by this program will let you explore your interests while preparing you for success, either in a profession of your choice or graduate study.
